

LONG WEEKEND IN SANTA BARBARA

Includes a 3 Night Stay for Two at the 4-Diamond Harbor View Inn, a Pacific Ocean Sunset Cruise & Dinner at the Wonderful Santo Mezcal Restaurant

Santa Barbara is one of the most beautiful places in California. Often referred to as the “American Riviera” for its Mediterranean-like climate, beautiful palm lined beaches and stunning Spanish architecture, it is also home to a thriving wine country, an abundance of great outdoor adventures, and has a fabulous dining, arts and cultural scene. The weather is nearly perfect year-round with warm (but never too hot) summers and mild winters.

Sunset Cruise: Santa Barbara sunsets stretch across the sky in a dazzling spectrum of blues, purples, pinks and oranges, and they are particularly beautiful when viewed from a boat. You are sure to enjoy this fabulous sunset cruise and complementary bottle of wine during your time on the ocean.

Gourmet Dinner: The food scene in Santa Barbara is delicious and some of the local upscale Mexican eateries are the best in the state. You will savor dinner for two at Santo Mezcal, where executive chef Ricardo Garcia presents a modern contemporary Mexican cuisine & cocktail mixology, rooted in Mexican flavors and traditions that also celebrate local seafood and seasonal ingredients from the Santa Barbara area.

Harbor View Inn

Luxury Hotel: Enjoy a three-night stay for two at the luxurious Harbor View Inn, Santa Barbara’s premier 4-Diamond hotel. Located right at The Wharf and across the street from expansive white sand beach, the hotel combines California casual with elegant amenities.
